About Us

Why we exist

Families in South Arkansas often face long travel distances, limited provider availability, and the challenge of coordinating multiple services. These barriers can make it harder for children to get the support they need and for parents to find a clear path forward. Faith Reins exists to help bridge these gaps by bringing pediatric therapy and equine-assisted experiences together in one welcoming place.

Our faith foundation

We are grounded in the Christian values of compassion, dignity and service. We believe every child is uniquely created and has inherent worth. These beliefs shape the way we welcome families, care for one another, and serve our community.

 Participation in religious activities is voluntary.

Our approach

We combine evidence-informed pediatric therapy with equine-assisted learning to support each child's growth.

Licensed pediatric therapy

Our licensed therapists provide individualized occupational, physical and speech-language therapy using fun, functional and child-centered approaches. Therapy focuses on building skills for greater independence in daily life.

Equine-Assisted Learning

Our equine-assisted learning (EAL) program offers goal-oriented experiences with horses to help build confidence, emotional regulation, communication, social skills and life skills. EAL is an educational and developmental experience and is not a medical treatment.

How We Began

Faith Reins started at Donna Horton's home, with a horse named Bonita and a heart for helping children and families. Through her years as a children's pastor, Donna saw the value of patient guidance, encouragement and connection. Combining that experience with her love of horses, she began offering small, one-on-one equine-assisted learning sessions. Those first sessions became the beginning of Faith Reins Equine Center—a growing vision to help children and families thrive mentally, physically and spiritually.

Why we exist

We help children and families connect with care, support and a clear path forward in South Arkansas.

How Physical Therapy Can Help

We support each child's unique strengths and needs through goal-driven, compassionate care.

Mobility

Supporting movement patterns for greater independence in daily activities.

Strength

Building functional strength to support participation and confidence.

Balance

Developing balance and coordination for safe, purposeful movement.

Gross Motor Skills

Enhancing developmental movement skills to support everyday activities and play.

Individual Evaluation. Family Goals.

We begin with a comprehensive evaluation to understand each child's unique strengths, needs, and environment. Together with families, we set meaningful goals that support real-world progress.

What to Expect

A supportive process designed with families in mind.

1

Counseling

Areas of Support

Counseling is individual, family, and strength-based support designed to help children and families navigate life's challenges.

Emotional well-being

Build self-awareness, confidence, and healthy ways to manage emotions.

Coping skills

Develop practical tools to handle stress, change, and daily challenges.

Family collaboration

Work together to strengthen communication, understanding, and support at home and in everyday life.

What to Expect

Counseling is a collaborative process. Here's what you can expect:

1

Conversation

We'll start by learning about your goals, concerns, and what's most important for your family.

2

Clinician-led assessment

A clinician will gather information to understand needs and strengths.

3

Agreed care goals

Together, we'll create goals and a plan that fits your family's needs, with regular opportunities to review progress.

Frequently Asked Questions

Clinical referral pathway

Our team works with referring providers to help children and families access appropriate services. The steps below outline the typical referral process.

1

Connect with intake

Share initial information about the child, family, and referral needs.

>

2

Review referral & coverage

Our team reviews the referral and verifies coverage as applicable.

>

3

Clinician evaluation

A clinician completes a comprehensive evaluation to determine appropriateness for services.

>

4

Confirm care plan & approvals

We collaborate with you and the family on a care plan and confirm any needed orders, signatures, or authorizations.

>

5

Schedule confirmed care

Once approvals are in place, we schedule services and coordinate next steps with the family.

Orders, signatures and authorizations depend on the service and payer. Our team confirms requirements before treatment.
